

Every Birth Matters Refund Policy – Aspiring Student Midwife Preparation Course

Refund Policy:

Your right to cancel and receive a full refund starts the moment you pay your deposit of £50 to secure your place and ends after 14 days. Remaining payment for the Aspiring Student Midwife course is due in total 21 days before the first day of the workshop.

If you cancel between less than day 21, but before day 10 of the course, you will only receive 50% refund of total paid, less the deposit.

Cancellations after day 10 will not result in any refund.

You will be offered to transfer to another course – subject to availability.

If the course is cancelled by the provider for any reason – you will be offered the opportunity to book onto another course or have a full refund. If you opt to transfer onto another course – you cannot then ask for a full refund.
